We may introduce a finance application to our limited number of lenders on your behalf. We will provide the details of the products they offer. We may also provide you with details of products offered by other lenders. This will not amount to independent financial advice.

The Lender will pay us a commission for introducing you to them. This will be paid either as a fixed amount or a fixed percentage of the amount financed. The estimated amount of that commission is as follows:

Different lenders may pay different commissions, and the terms of the finance offer presented to you may only be available based on the amount of the commission that we receive. For example, if you determine that you do not wish to proceed with the finance proposal presented to you because of the commission amount we receive, this may mean that not all features of the finance offer will be available to you if a lower commission is paid. In all cases, the amount of the commission we receive does not affect the amount you pay to the lender under your finance agreement.
